prietors by a friend who has been a great traveler in Persia and the Holy land. While going down theriver Euphrates, he experienced a severe attack of Fever and Ague. On discovering his condition, one of the Boatmen took from his person an Amulet, saying, "Wear this and no Fever will touch you." Although incredulous as to its virtues; he complied, and experienced immediate relief, and has since always found it an effectual protection from all malarious com-On further investigation he found that the boatman attributed to it miraculous powers, and said that it could only be obtained from the Priests of the San. Sometime afterwards, the gentleman in conversing with a Priest obtained from him the seeret of its preparation, and ascertaited where the medicinal herbs were found, of which it was compounded. The wonderful virtues of this article have induced a full belief in the minds of the natives in the miraculous healing powers of their Since his return to America, It has been tried with the happiest effect by several Ladies and Gentlemen of high character, who have given it the most unqualified praise. This remedy having been a specific in Persia for hundreds of years, for the prevention and cure of Fever and Ague and Bilious Fevers-is now offered, to the American people. It will be sent by mail, prepaid, with full directions for use on receipt of one dollar. TO ADVERTISERS .- The "ALEXAN-DRIA GAZETTE" offers inducements to advertisers unsurpassed by any journal in Virginia. Circulating largely in Virginia, Maryland, and the District of Columbia, and extensively in the Southern and Western States, among the great body of buyers and sellers of the land, an advertisement in the Gazette would be as widely diffused, and meet the eye of as many readers, as if published in any paper in this section. Advertisers would consult their own interests by making the "Gazette" the vehicle of their communication with the public. OMNIBUSES FOR WASHINGTON. Leave Alexandria at 8, 92, clock, P. M. and 112, A. M., 12, 3, and 42 o'-
